

Railway Fundamentals – Signals Part 1 – self test questions

1. What were the 4 types of signals explained in the video?
2. What two colours are the BACK of a main arm stop signal?
3. What does a Stop signal mean to a driver when it is horizontal?
4. How far must the line be clear before a signalman can clear a main-arm stop signal?
5. When a shunt signal is cleared, how far can the driver go?
6. If the arm was missing from a signal post, how would you know if it is a distant or a main-arm stop signal?
7. At which two locations on the West Somerset Railway can stop boards be found?
8. For new semaphore signals on Network Rail, are upper or lower quadrant signals standard?
9. Above what speed are distant signals required?
10. What FOUR pieces of information does the clearance of a running signal convey to a driver?