

Railway Fundamentals – Signals Part 2 – self test questions

1. Of two 'stacked' shunt signals, which applies to the right-hand route?
2. At which two WSR stations would you find a centre-balanced signal?
3. At which two stations would you find a signal with a sighting board?
4. Describe the shape and colour of a signal sighting board.
5. Bishops Lydeard down outer home can display which two colours?
6. Describe the 7 parts of Minehead colour-light inner home from top to bottom.
7. What indication would the Minehead colour-light inner home signal give for a movement into the bay platform if the platform way unoccupied?
8. What indication would the Minehead colour-light inner home signal give for a movement into the Loco Sidings?
9. What two indications can signal E627 give?
10. What do railwaymen call a series of points one after another which allows a movement across a number of tracks?